What is this squiggly skill?

Be yourself, more, with skill

- Rob Goffee and Gareth Jones

Leadership starts with you. It's what you have to offer that motivates others, gains their respect, and inspires them to perform well.

How to know when to lead and when to follow

Ideas for Action

Consider your say-do gap

Consider the shadow that you cast as a leader. This comes not by what you say but by what you do. What 3 things do you want to show up in your shadow?

Involve don't solve

Ladderlike leadership = telling people what to do. Instead, be 'involving' in your approach which helps others feel empowered and more committed. Sounds like:

1. How would you approach this?
2. What is your perspective on XX?
3. I'm going round in circles with xxxx what is your take on it?
